En-bloc Temporo-Parotid Resections

17th -18th September 2025

Palazzo Trecchi
Via Sigismondo Trecchi n°20
26100 Cremona (CR) Italy

Focus on

This dissection course is focused on the temporo-parotid resection, a comprehensive en-bloc resection of the parotid and temporal bone, indicated in advanced cases of parotid and periauricular malignancies. The symposium "Temporal Bone Resections in Advanced Malignancies of the Parotid Gland", held on the morning of the 17th, will explore the rationale and indications of the procedure (refer to the event brochure). This dissection course will follow the symposium and will demonstrate the surgical procedure through a fresh-frozen head dissection, with continuous guidance from the faculty throughout both the head and neck and skull base surgical steps. This approach involves a combination of head&neck, otologic and skull base surgical skills.

The course is open to 20 participants, targeting those with substantial experience in head and neck surgery, and in the otologic and skull base domains.

For 10 participants to the symposium, there will be the opportunity to join as observers the dissection course.

Dissection Course

En-bloc temporo-parotid resections

3:30 PM on September 17th, 2025 - 7:30 PM on September 18th, 2025

Step by step dissection of the key surgical steps

- Cervical dissection steps
- Parapharyngeal dissection steps
- En- bloc temporo-parotid resection
- Extension to mandibular condyle and mandibular ramus
- Extension of en-bloc temporo-parotid resection with craniotomies

Each of the 10 dissection stations in the course will preferably pair two participants: one more familiar with head and neck surgery and the other with otologic and otoneurological surgery. Participants will be guided in applying the rationale and executing the procedures through constant tutoring.
